

How is the web different than the internet? The web is information found on the internet. The internet is a global network connected to other networks.

Briefly describe how the internet works. Information is passed on in packets from networks and other computers.

What is a directory, and what is its relationship to files? A directory is a location for storing files on your computer and a directory inside a directory is a subdirectory.

Why is using a VCS beneficial? It allows you to compare files, differences, and merge the changes if needed prior to committing any code.